

About Us

Credence Home Health Services is a locally owned and operated home health agency committed to providing quality home health services in Texas. Using the latest and most cost effective treatment options, our professional staff works under the direction of your physician, following a unique care plan to meet your home health care needs.

Our nurses and therapists are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. All our employees must pass a pre-employment that includes references, education verification as well as a criminal background check. Our personnel are supervised by our Director of Nursing and work under the direction of your physician in providing your care.
